The Obama administration pursued a policy in Libya back in 2011 that ultimately allowed guns to walk into the hands of jihadists linked to the Islamic State (ISIS/ISIL) and al-Qaeda (AQ) in Syria, according to a former CIA officer who co-authored a report on behalf of the Citizen's Commission on Benghazi (CCB), detailing the gun running scheme.

Clare Lopez, a former CIA officer and the primary author of CCB's interim report, titled How America Switched Sides in the War on Terror, speaking with Breitbart News.
